WOMAN INJURED BY A RUNAWAY

Mrs. L Schweitzer Narrowly Escapes Death on Merchant Street.

A serious runaway accident occurred n Merchant street yesterday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock. Two iorses attached to a dray used by the estoffice ran away, and dashed along Merchant street toward Fort street. The heavy vehicle crashed against a smaller dray belonging to Peaceck & Co., taking one of the hind wheels of and breaking the thick iron support as if it had been so much tinder. A hack was just turning into Mer-chant street from Fort, going towards the postoffice, as the runaway was nearing Fort. Mrs. L. Schweitzer, who was alone in her buggy, was turning into Merchant street at the same time and, seeing the runaway approaching, was endeavoring to get out of the way by turning in behind the back, when her buggy was caught between the hack and the rapidly moving dray. The pole of the big dray struck the buggy fair in the middle, the horses became desperately mixed up, and the buggy was smashed beyond all repair. ars, Schweitzer was thrown with great force to the ground and was hastily rescued from any further injuries than she had already received, for the terrified animals were wildly endeavoring to extricate themselves, and was carried, partially unconscious, into Menerny's clothing store, where she was aid upon the floor and looked after to every possible extent until the arrival of medical assistance. Meanwhile the horses which figured in the runaway were extricated from the wreck without any further disaster.

Doctors Burgess, Cooper and Mac-donald responded to the hurry call for aid, and found Mrs. Schweitzer suffering considerably upon their arrival bones of the right foot, a fracture of the left clavicle, and several minor in juries, as well as a severe shock to her ervous system.

The patrol wagon was telephoned for and Mrs. Schweitzer was transferred to her home. Dr. Cooper is attending her, and last night reported that her injuries were not likely permanent. Those who saw the accident wonder how Mrs. Sweltzer possibly escaped able, $5. with her life.
